

JAMIE WALLEN - Rulers Boot Camp

2-Day workshop: April 9 & 10, 2021

Jamie is well known as an international Teacher and Long Arm Quilting Artist. He travels and teaches workshops as well as producing educational materials for the quilting community. Teaching is his passion and he has an enormous Internet/YouTube presence.

This is a TWO DAY design class that will focus on surface design using rulers- those handy tools that surface quilters love to use but often leave quilters with a lot of anxiety. From correct ruler and template basics, use of ruler bases, hopping foot height, correct way to hold rulers, layout work, creating your own designs and so much more, this class will make you a confident surface designer and take your ruler skills to the next level! This is a Hands-On class that will include lecture, drawing.

Supplies: Letter-size or larger doodle pad, pens
